WHICH BAKING GOODY CLAIMS THE PRIZE?

Behind every budding baker there's a kitchen full of baking goodies. Can you guess which one has been selected at random to win the sweepstake?

The host will select a number between 1 - 20 and write it down secretly. Players will write their names next to their chosen image. When all the choices have been taken, the host will share what number was written down to reveal who will be taking home half the cash! The rest of the takings will be returned to us using the form in your fundraising pack.
